Forecast for Monday 05 Aug 2024

Weather: Mostly cloudy with pulses of rain during today, heavy at times over Creag Meagaidh and down around Ben Alder. Some drier, brighter weather too, best over northern Cairngorms and Monadliath mountains where it will be warm and humid in the glens. Higher temperatures may trigger a few afternoon thunderstorms, especially towards Cairngorms.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 50%, best in north of area.

Low cloud and visibility: Misty conditions as rain comes along with poor visibility in heavier rain and in cloud which will be extensive at times above about 700m. Good visibility at times too during the day, especially in the north with more broken cloud cover.
